Thrilling entertainment!

Three new live stage shows highlight 2009 entertainment program

KINGS ISLAND, Ohio – Kings Island’s thrills don’t end with the rides. Our live entertainment is amazing too! From high-energy shows featuring the songs and dance that defined the decade of the 80’s and country music revues to incredibly cool ice-skating and character meet and greets, everyone in the family will love our entertainment. It’s nothing less than spectacular!

Brand new and returning stage productions for the park’s 2009 season include:

Down Home Country

New in 2009! – All-new popular song and dance revue celebrating the legends of country music as well as their top charting country classics. You’ll probably want to see this one more than once. At the Festhaus located in Oktoberfest April 18 through September 13. Off on Monday. The show lasts 25 minutes.

Don’t Stop the Music

New in 2009! – DJ pump up the music and let the party start! Get down with today’s hottest hits and chart smashing songs in this all-new revue! Featuring songs by Rihanna, Katy Perry and Kid Rock! At the International Bandstand located on International Street May 26 through June 4 and June 19 through August 23. The show lasts 20 minutes.

Endless Summer on Ice

Come join us as we celebrate Summer Fun and more! You don’t want to miss this amazing ice-skating display that will excite and entertain the entire family. At the Kings Island Theater on International Street June 5 through August 16. Off on Wednesday. The show lasts 30 minutes.

Flashback: Totally 80’s!

Get into the groove and travel back to the days when it was hip to be square! Our singers and dancers pay tribute to leg warmers, mullets, Rubik’s Cube and the songs that defined a decade in this all-new music revue! At the International Showplace Theatre located on International Street June 19 through September 13. Off on Tuesday. The show lasts 25 minutes.

The County Line

Head over to “The County Line” for our entertaining country music revue. This popular show features the songs of all your favorite country stars including Carrie Underwood, Brad Paisley and Rascal Flatts. As American as apple pie...this country’s rockin’ down at “The County Line.” At the Festhaus located in Oktoberfest. June 4 through August 23. Off on Thursday. The show lasts 25 minutes.
